We Are the Warriors

Spirit

The Spirit of our school is very special. We are the Warriors and Victory is our Battle Cry.

At pep rallies, at athletic events, at general assemblies we loudly proclaim this spirit, but it exists all the time in our school.

This spirit has come to us from the Warriors Past, the young men and women who preceded us at Port Huron Catholic High School. It has been nurtured and developed by our faculty and administration, and will in turn be refined and strengthened by us, the Warriors Present so that we in turn may pass this tremendous spirit on to the Warriors Future.

On these pages we hope to show, by pictures and words, how the Spirit of PHC manifests itself in our school.

Student Mass Sparks

the Spirit of the Warrior's

Mass is said daily in the Chapel. There are special Folk Masses celebrated frequently for one or two religion classes but, the Mass that is the real inspiration of Port Huron Catholic is the Student Mass held monthly in the gym.

Here we see our priest faculty concelebrating the Holy Sacrifice; we listen to their sincere and inspired homilies; we sing together the responses and hymns; we receive together Christ's Body; we become a truly Catholic student body.

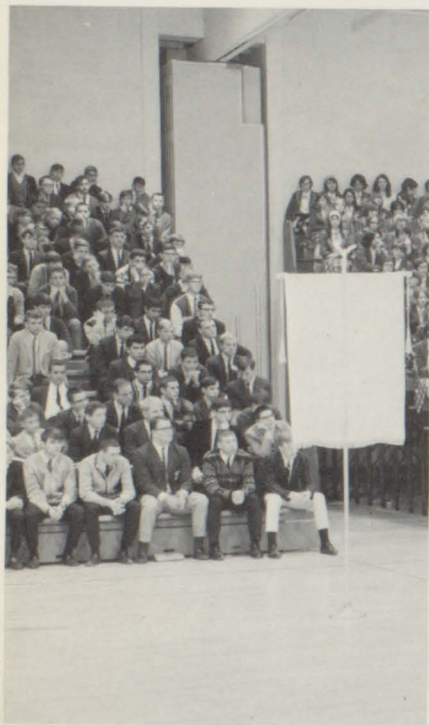

For this event each month, the gym becomes transformed, the students become helpers with the priests in setting up the altar, the chairs, the sacristy. Student musicians play guitar accompaniment to the student singing, and we become one in Christ.

This Mass is the best expression of the reason for the existence of Port Huron Catholic and for its Spirit.

Spirit Through

Our Administration

Father Joseph Blinstrub.

Organization

The spirit of any institution starts with its administration. Fr. Joseph Blinstrub, our principal, truly embodies the spirit of organization and thus sets the tone for the whole school.

Father's desire for a well-run school does not interfere with his friendliness to both students and faculty as well as parents of our young men and women, but it does assure us that Port Huron Catholic is the kind of school we want it to be.

The Many Facets

Askar-Shain

Orientation

Sister Willard makes sure that we keep our over-all goal in mind; the total development of young boys and girls into responsible, educated Christian men and women.

Sister seems to be everywhere in the school, but is actually very available to each of us when we want help in individual matters, even though she is so busy keeping the entire organization in full swing.

Judy Claseman and Mary Jo Kelly study catalogues.

Mr. Robert Branch, Speech Therapist, and Linda Wolff.

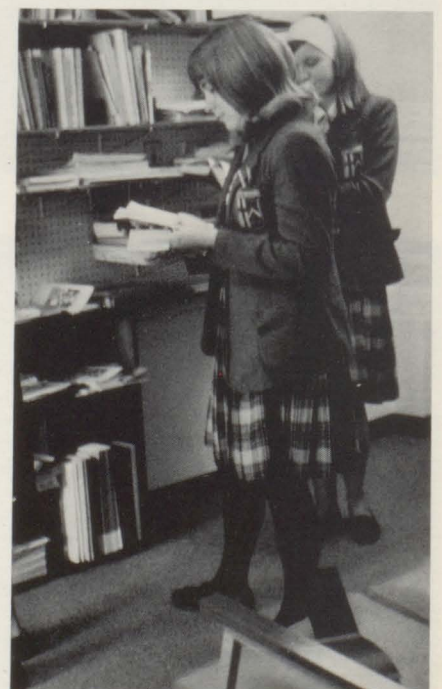

Mrs. McDonald gives test results.

Dr. Dougherty, ready to start a test.

Kathy Kramer and Mary St. Couer.

the Individual Student

The Guidance Department offers the student not only individual counseling, but many other services besides. Standard test, aptitude tests, and special group testing are conducted by this department. Special services are provided through them. Vocational guidance is given to those requesting it.

This department also directs group guidance, although this is carried out in the homerooms, so that smaller groups will assure participation of all students in this area which is designed to help the student grow not only scholastically but socially and morally as well.

The college bound find in this office a wealth of information and material to aid them in their search for the next step in the educational scale.

Mrs. Jeanne McDonald assist Fr. Dougherty.

Fr. Peter Dougherty, Guidance director, heads the department.

Sr. Leo Theresa assist part time in this department.

Mr. Irv Claseman, Athletic Director and teacher.

Thanks

Order depends on many things, and entails the work of many hands. We are fortunate that the persons responsible for order and maintenance in our school carry out their duties with the true Warrior spirit.

Although each person has his own job to do, there are numerous little extras that must be done if things are to run smoothly. It is to the credit of the people on these pages that the average student is not even aware of their many little duties because they are taken care of so smoothly and quickly. We do want to express our appreciation for their services.

Mr. Leo Dionne, Bookkeeper.

Order Maintenance Nutrition

Sister Kathleen Marie, S.S.J.; Sr. Roberta Marie, O.P.; Fr. Irvin and Fr. Dougherty

Sr. Dolores Marie, S.S.M.; Sr. Aurilla and Sr. Maria I.H.M.

The Spirit of Faith

The backbone of a religion oriented school is naturally enough its religion classes. Besides teaching students the doctrines and practices of their Catholic faith, these classes are occasions for learning Christian life, as it is lived now as students; and as it will be lived in the future in their careers and in their homes; and as citizens in their community. Most of the religious staff members are engaged in this department.

Sr. Norman, O.P. leads a group of sophomores in a discussion during retreat.

Sr. Jonathan, O.P. teaches her junior religion class in the music room, handy for singing hymns.

Involved in Teaching Religion

Eugene, S.S.J.; Sr. Alice Patricia,

Fr. Mason Vaughn, teacher and friend of youth.

Fr. Robert Koenig, pastor of St. Joseph's as well as teacher.

Sr. Aurilla is the only full time religion teacher on the faculty.

Sr. Mary Samuel.

Religion Classes

Mary and Nancy play guitars during a folk Mass.

The Communion procession includes singing.

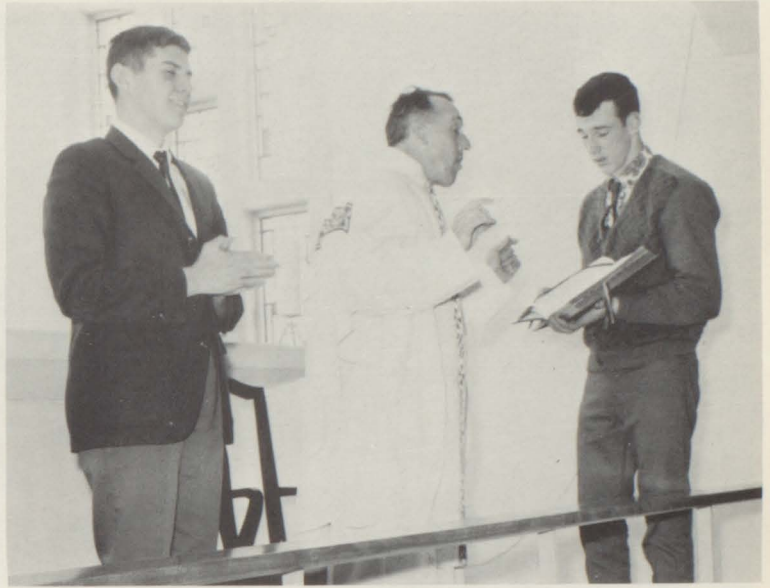

Together the class and Fr. Dougherty offer a sacrifice.

Celebrate Folk Masses

Many times small groups of students, a religion class or two together, will celebrate a more informal Mass in the Chapel. Guitars are used as accompaniment, the singing is by the whole group, and usually the whole group will gather around the celebrant for the offertory.

These Masses are in keeping with the new air sweeping through the Church. The sermon is a dialogue, with the students commenting and adding ideas to that of the priest. A close feeling of Christian love is the result.

Fr. Vaughn celebrates with the Seniors.

Future Chefs and

The Home Economics Department headed by Sister Alice Patricia, IHM, has added a course for future chefs to its classes in foods, clothing, and homemaking. Sister instructs the Foods classes and Mrs. Eugenia Winkel teaches Clothing.

The bulletin board outside their classroom attests to the ability of the girls to sew and to knit, but the products of the Foods classes are perishable, and only the tantalizing aromas in the area, or an occasional tidbit handed out let the rest of us know how well the chefs are doing.

Sister Alice Patricia watches Jerry Young cut out cookies while his mates look on.

Chuck Collard and Jim Nihls whip up a batter.

Sister has the rapt attention of these boys.

Business Courses

Mrs. Dunbar encourages the advanced typing class in speed and accuracy.

Neophyte typists practice.

Spirit of Responsibility

The Business Department attempts to provide the student with sufficient training so that he may secure a position in the business world upon graduation, or he may enter a technical school for further training in the area in which he finds his talents most useful. The spirit of responsibility, which includes such characteristics as neatness, accuracy, dependability, promptness, and tact, is developed by teaching and example in this department.

Mr. Al Armstrong, Mrs. Grace Dunbar, Sr. Rosemarie, S. C., and Mr. Roger Cross compose the business department.

Queen Maureen Reigns Over Homecoming '67

HOMECOMING—a time when Warriors Present invite Warriors Past to join them for a gala evening. First a parade from school to Memorial Field: floats and candidates are featured during the parade, and this year the Marine City High School Band was invited to participate.

Then comes the football game. A clearcut victory of the Warriors over Marine City High School added joy to the excitement of the evening.

At half-time the floats and candidates parade the field and winners are announced. The Senior float, Drag-On to Victory, received first place, and Maureen Kramer was crowned Queen by Mr. P. J. O'Donnell, President of the Home School Organization.

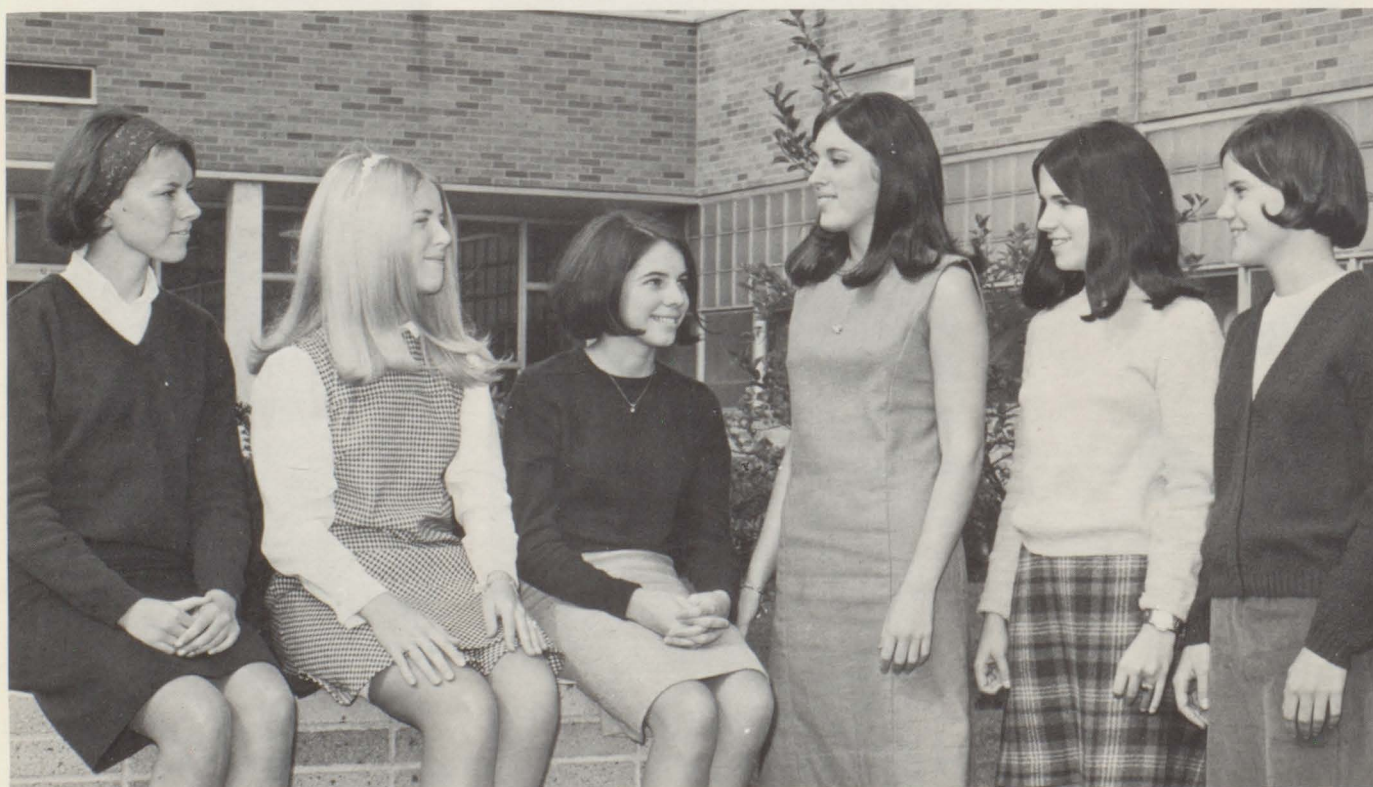

After the game the students and their guests streamed back to PHC Gym, which they found transformed into a glamorous Camelot.

The conviction of all was that Homecoming '67 was the greatest ever.

To Foster Vocations

These young ladies pledge themselves to help create such an atmosphere in home, school, and community that vocations to the religious life will be fostered. They do not themselves necessarily plan to become religious, but they realize that prayer and conducive activity are essential if the Church is to have enough laborers.

They meet monthly, rather informally. They plan and promote wholesome Christian recreation and hope that such an atmosphere will nourish any seed of a vocation.

Catholic Students Mission Crusade

C.S.M.C. Everybody belongs to that. In a way this is true, but not everyone is conscious of belonging. All true Christians must be missionaries, and these young people remind the rest of us of this obligation. Besides collecting dues for the Propagation of the Faith Society, the C.S.M.C. also sponsors the annual Christmas baskets, given to our own local families in temporary need.

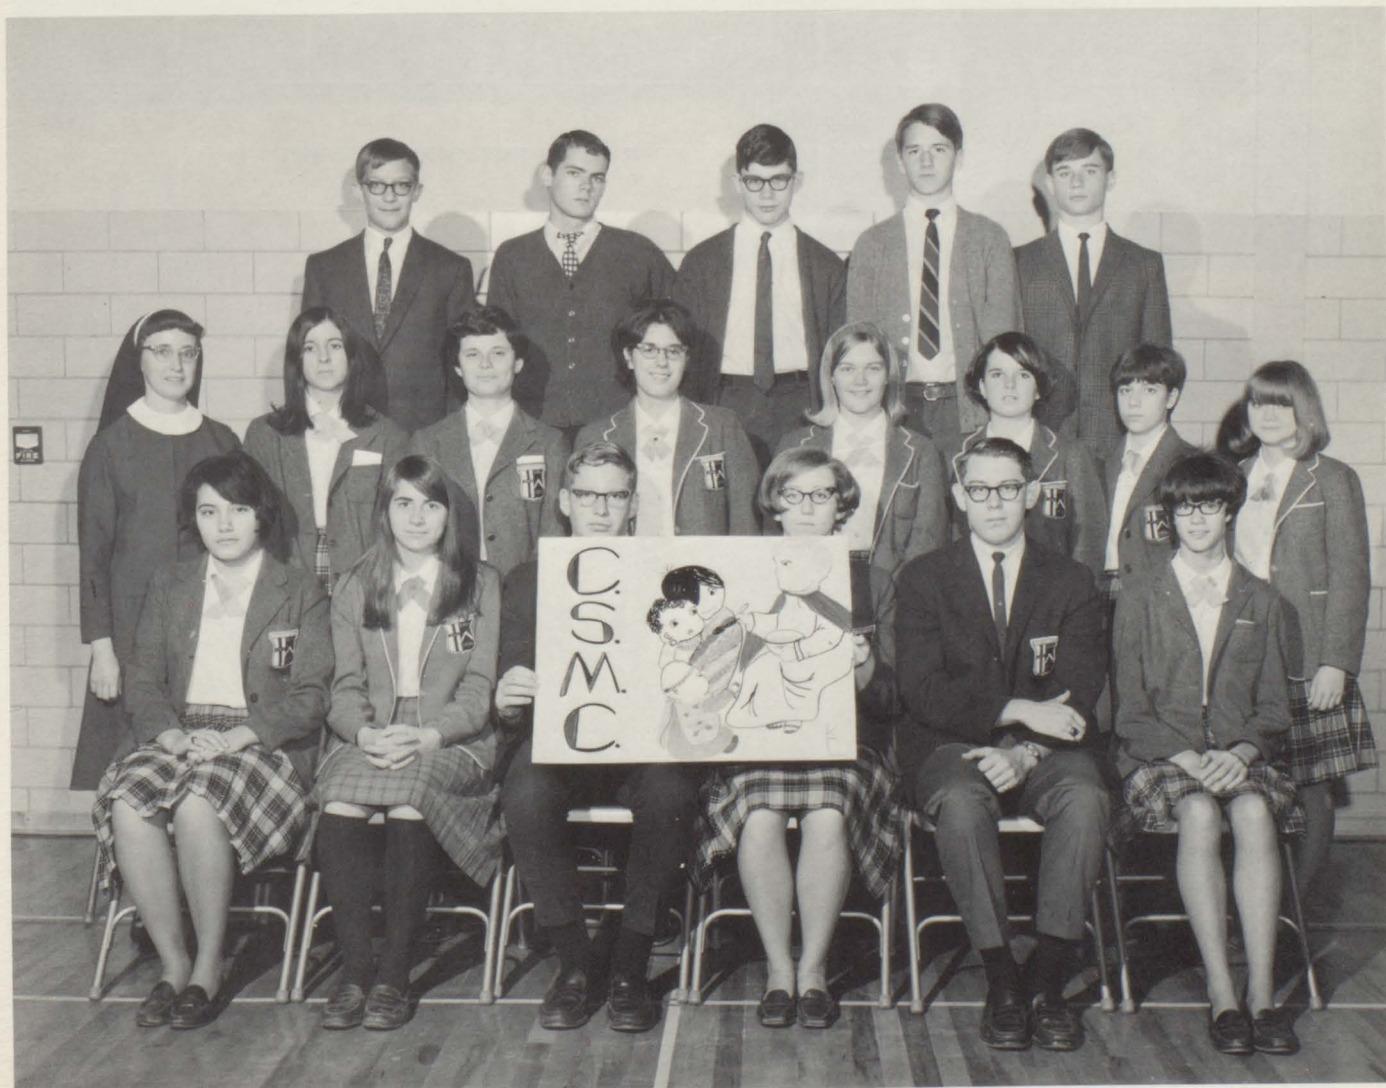

At present money and prayers are about all that we can give, but it is our hope that some time, some of us will be able to give of ourselves to the missions, here or in some other part of the world.

G.A.A. is an organization that not only develops athletic prowess, but also stresses personal relationships between girls. Good sportsmanship and team spirit are very much a part of Tuesday night activities. Girls learn to compete with the idea of winning, but to accept defeat as well as to abide by the decisions of the referees, a good lesson for anyone, and one learned with fun under the direction of Mrs. Marion Hall, girl's athletic director.

Senior Seminar

The purpose of the government Club is to learn about government by dialogue with those engaged in it at a practical level. Each month the group meets for a pot luck dinner and a talk by a city official. At this time members may ask questions about government at the city level.

The high light of the year is a trip to a locale of government at a higher level. This year it is to New York and the United Nations. Mr. Donald Wismer is the moderator of the group.

Warriors Share League Title

Coach Armstrong confers with quarterback Dooley.

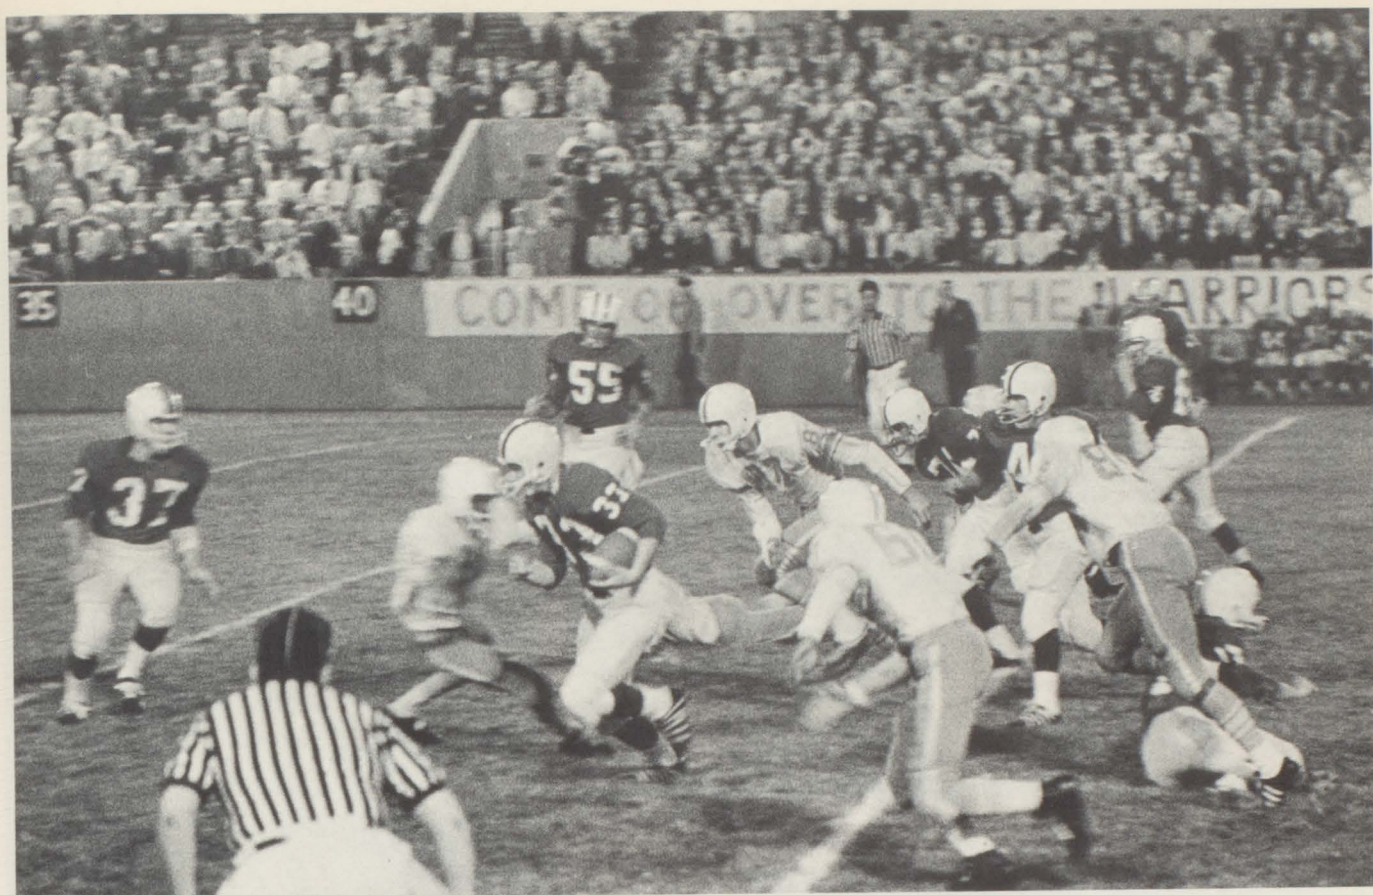

A share of the St. Clair Area League title may be better than no title, but the Warriors plan to win the title outright next year.

From the first game to the last, win, lose or tie, the Warriors played fine, exciting football. Students and fans spent nine happy evenings watching them prove that Coach Armstrong meant it when he said his men were willing to "pay the Price".

J.V.'s Lose Games and Players

The J.V. Warriors were plagued by injuries, the serious kind. In fact the side lines at practice time looked like an out-patient ward of an orthopedic hospital. Even the Warrior Spirit was not sufficient to overcome their handicaps and their season was noted by losses.

Coach Foley explains a pattern.

Freshmen Win All

The Freshmen wasted no time at all learning the spirit of the Warriors. A quick glance at their names will show that older brothers, Warriors Past and Present, had a hand in developing their fine spirit. Coach Anthes has trained these young players well so that they will take their place soon on the PHC Varsity.
